

Summary of Contextual Information

Name of Individual:

Problem Behavior:

---

List possible medical, physical or emotional problems that may “set the stage” for the aggressive behavior to occur:

List the people who are typically present when the aggressive behavior occurs:

List the things people are typically doing when the aggressive behavior occurs:

List the routines, event and activities that are typically happening when the aggressive behavior occurs:

List the times of day/days of week when the aggressive behavior typically occurs:

List what the environmental conditions are typically like when the aggressive behavior occurs:

List the warning signs the individual typically displays prior to the aggressive behavior occurring:

List what typically happens after the problem behavior occurs:

List the possible message(s) you think the individual is trying to communicate through the aggressive behavior: